Weekly Newsletter

March 31, 2009

Well spring break is winding down and everyone is getting back on the water. The kayaks are ready to go and the docks trimmed and set.

This week Thursday and Friday (April 2 - 3) at 6pm we will be sunfish sailing. If you want to join in then come on down. then Saturday and Sunday at 10am is member sail days (April 4th and 5th). we have a few choice spots left for those wanting to get outside and enjoy the weather.

Also, Sunday the 5th is the start of kayaking 103. If you want to join in the next class starting at 8am let us know and we will get you started. Kayaking 103 is getting more into the touring aspect of the sport along with charting and planning trips.

The Galveston trips in April are full as of now BUT we are planning on a great May 2009.

Sunfish sailing classes and windsurfing classes are set for Saturday and Sunday May 9th-10th. the sunfish class is about full with two spots left and the windsurfing class is just now filling up.

Finally, the Memorial Day weekend sail to Freeport has two spots left We will be boarding the 34' Hunter Friday and heading out late PM for Galveston. Then Saturday we will be heading to Freeport The plans are to be back late Sunday night and then Sail all day Monday in the Marianda for the first Member Sender to a Great Wine and Dine time Spring event.

OK, kayaking and sculling daily and all weekend long.

Sailing trips and camping is coming as well.

See you guys soon, let us know if you want to save your spot.

Take care, we love you guys
